++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Showers and cloud clearing to leave a largely dry night.

This Evening and Tonight:
Remaining showers gradually easing as cloud begins to clear in the evening. Staying dry for most overnight, but western areas may see the odd shower in the early hours, as cloud encroaches from the west. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Sunday:
While western and northern areas may experience a wet start, elsewhere will see showers develop through the morning, some possibly heavy with risk of thunder. Staying cloudy throughout. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
A mixture of scattered showers and sunny spells on Monday and Tuesday, many of these heavy, carrying a slight risk of thunder. Becoming drier on Wednesday, with plenty of sunshine.
